Minimum enrollment policy

- Courses are subject to a minimum enrollment of 3 students.
- Courses with only 2 students are given 8 (2:1) lessons for every 10 group lessons booked until a normal group forms.
- Courses with only 1 enrolled student are given 4 private lessons (1:1) for every 10 group lessons booked until 2 or more students join the group.

The adjustment of scheduled hours according to course enrollment numbers normally affects only beginners, non-exam proficiency courses and afternoon groups but it can apply to any level.

Levels Offered

- A1.1 Beginner I (No Previous Study)
- A1.2 Elementary
- A2 Lower Intermediate
- B1 Intermediate
- B2 Upper Intermediate
- C1.1 Advanced
- C1.2 Advanced II (Post-CAE)
- C2 Proficiency (Examination preparation only)

Language Level Assessment

All students are given a short test for their English language level before their first class. This test is held at the school either on Sunday evening, 5.00 pm - 6.30pm (summer only), or on Monday morning at 8.30am sharp, depending on the student's arrival time in Galway. Students are allocated their test time at the time of booking.

Books

Purchase of books by students is required. Examination students must buy the designated course book and work book. The school maintains a small stock of these course and work books, English-English dictionaries, grammar books and other reference books are for sale to students at cost.

Certificates of attendance

Certificates of attendance and level achievement will be issued to all departing students. Students requiring end-of-course progress reports or other special documentation should notify the school office on arrival.

People who say it cannot be done should not interrupt those who are doing it”

George Bernard Shaw

Extending Courses

All courses can be extended with permission of the Director of Studies. During the low season, multi-week discounts may be given, but prices may increase during the high season.

Insurance Requirements

EU Students: EHIC / EEA card must be obtained before travelling to Ireland. For further details go to www.ehic.ie

Non-EU Students: Must provide evidence of full medical insurance in English on arrival at the school. Otherwise, students must obtain medical insurance coverage before they can begin their course. Health insurance is also available through the school

Visa Requiring Students

Students requiring a student visa must:

- Have adequate medical insurance to cover their stay in Ireland. The policy must be in English. The school can arrange medical insurance before a student arrives or on arrival.
- Open a bank account in Ireland and have evidence of more than €3000 balance. The school can help students to open an account on arrival.

www.inis.gov.ie

Punctuality and attendance

Students must keep an attendance rate of at least 85% for their programme and must not be more than 15 minutes late to class. A student will be recorded as absent if they are more than 15 minutes late to class or leave more than 15 minutes early from class. Students more than 30 minutes late will not be allowed to class and will have to return after the following class break. Attendance will be recorded.

Students are obligated to sign an agreement at the beginning of the programme stating that Bridge Mills Galway Language Centre will enter the student for the appropriate end of programme exams and that the exams are mandatory and agree that they will sit the exam.

Absenteeism and Expulsion

In the case of a student being absent for 2 days the school will try to make contact with the student. If unsuccessful a letter/ email will be sent to the student within 10 days of absence. If the school is unable to make contact with the student or receive good cause for absence then the student will be expelled from the school within 4 weeks of the initial absence and reported to the local immigration office.

All correspondence will be retained and will be available on request to relevant authorities. Absenteeism and expulsion procedures are implemented in a timely manner (Non-EEA students will not be expelled towards the end of their programmes in relation to issues identified at an earlier point in the programme)

Sick Leave

Students must contact the school on the first day of sickness and each day subsequently and must submit a certificate from a doctor on the first day of return to school. The procedure regarding absenteeism and expulsion is referenced in the requirements as activated in the case of uncertified sick leave beyond the statutory entitlement.

Holidays and Breaks

No unscheduled breaks are permitted except in documented cases of illness or close family bereavement. Student holidays and breaks must comply with the Department of Justice and Equality requirements.

Complaints and Grievances

If students have complaints or grievances they should report these to the office immediately.

Protection for Learners

The school has arrangements in place for the protection of students in the event that a programme ceases prematurely so students can complete the programme with another provider(s) through membership of Marketing English in Ireland. Arrangements cover the period from enrollment on a programme until successful completion of the programme and exams.

2. UNIVERSITY RESIDENCE – (SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY):

Available July / August set in the historic grounds of NUI Galway, Corrib Village offers a free daily shuttle to the city centre. Corrib Village offers shared apartments (no cooking facilities), 20 minutes' walk from the city centre. Free Wi-Fi is also available. (Continental breakfast available)

Bed linen and towels are included. There is an outdoor children's play area, a barbecue and picnic area, and a tennis court.

3. BED AND BREAKFAST / HOTEL ACCOMMODATION:

This kind of accommodation is suitable for those who like more independent living.

Prices vary from season to season and depending on location.

MEI requires that no two students of the same language be accommodated in a host family at the same time. Exceptions can be made for special requests, e.g., couples, family members, etc. The school tries always to respect this rule but we have no control over personal guests at the host family home while our students are in residence.

Host Family Conditions

- Family accommodation is booked in units of 7 nights, beginning and ending on Saturday or Sunday.
- Students wishing to arrive earlier in the week before the beginning of their course or wishing to remain in the family for extra days (maximum: 2 days) at the end of the course must make special arrangements at the time of booking.
- Ordinarily, students must leave their host family at the end of their course.
- Cancellation of Accommodation – September to May: Students leaving before completion of a course will be given a refund only for full weeks after departure from the family, provided notice of departure is given one full week (weekend-to-weekend) before leaving. A cancellation fee is charged in all cases.

- Cancellation of Summer Accommodation – June, July & August: If a student cancels accommodation after arrival during these months, a refund of only 50% of the accommodation fees for each full week will be returned, and only if notice of departure is given one full week (weekend-to-weekend) before leaving.

A cancellation fee is charged in all cases.

- Changing Host Families: Students cannot change host family accommodation in the first two weeks of the stay without forfeiting the accommodation fee. If a student wishes to change host families after that period, they must give a full week's notice to the school office and to the host family (weekend-to-weekend) to vacate. A cancellation fee will be charged in all cases. Availability of alternative family accommodation cannot be guaranteed.
- Temporary Absence from the Host Family: A reduced fee is charged in all cases to retain the room when a student is absent for one week or more. Students must tell the school and the host family of their plans in advance. Reductions are not given for absences of less than 7 days.

“I was treated like one of the family.”

Adriano - Italian student

Other Accommodation

Students do not have to stay with a host family while taking courses at the school. Galway has many lovely hotels, B&Bs and hostels which can be found on the website:

www.discoverireland.ie. For extended stays students may want to rent a room or an apartment, listings for which can be found in the newspaper The Galway Advertiser at www.galwayadvertiser.ie or www.daft.ie or www.galway.net.

Self Catering Accommodation

JULY - AUGUST ONLY

Self catering accommodation is available. All self catering accommodation must be paid in full at time of booking.

Bed & Breakfast Accommodation

ACCOMMODATION PLACEMENT FEE charged when school books accommodation in all cases (NON-REFUNDABLE)

Arrivals & Departures

Students who have booked host family accommodation should give the school the following information:

- Arrival date in Galway. Host family reservations cannot be confirmed without a student's arrival date.
- To be certain that a host family will be at home when the student is planning to arrive, the student's estimated arrival time in Galway must be sent to the school and/or the host family several days in advance.
- Method of arrival in Galway: plane, bus, train, etc.
- Place, date & time of arrival if other than Galway.
- Any anticipated absences from the school or from the host family.

On arrival in Galway, students should take a taxi (Galway Taxis +353 91 561111) to the host family. Transfers on arrival and departure are not provided by the school or the host family.

The teachers, activities and the host family organized by the school were great”

Pierre - French student

Late Arrivals

Our host families request that students make every effort to arrange flights which allow students to arrive at host family no later than 12 midnight. If a student's travel plans are such that the student cannot reach Galway before midnight, alternative accommodation for the first night should be arranged by the student.

Public Transportation

- www.galwaytransport.info - Information on public transport in Galway

A taxi or other hired car with a driver can be arranged. This type of arrangement must include waiting time and can be expensive if a flight is delayed. Please contact the school for more information.

Social Programme Activities

The school offers an organised activities programme, consisting of two or more informal social & cultural events each week, as well as weekend excursions, as a regular part of its courses. These activities are free or charged at cost when entrance fees or bus tickets are required. Information about these activities is circulated or placed on the school notice boards every Monday.

See www.thisisgalway.ie for more on social life in Galway.
