GENERAL ENGLISH

Group Courses

The majority of students wishing to take full-time courses opt for course X, X+Z or X+Y. Some student like to keep the afternoons free for relaxation, self study, getting to know Dublin, mixing with other students and participating in extra-curricular activities organised by the school.

The school is very happy for students to spend their free time in the building either doing extra work on their English or using the school's facilities.

People wishing to take a more intensive course such as 26 or 30 classes per week, can combine course X in the morning with course Z or Y in the afternoon and still have time to do afternoon activities or self study. Alternatively, they may combine course X with some one-to-one classes in the afternoon. Individual timetables for private tuition can be arranged to suit the particular needs of students

Full time classes are small and in autumn and winter average 8 or 9 students. The courses cover the four skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing with special emphasis on the spoken word. Au Pair Programme combined with Course Z

An au pair programme is available for young adults aged between 18 and 25 who come from European and Non-European countries. This is an ideal way for students wishing to stay for a long time in the country to learn English. The Linguaviva Centre's au pair co-ordinator will help with any problems that may arise and provide support and advice to both au pairs and families.

- An au pair must have a good basic knowledge of English together with adequate conversation skills.
- Qualifications or experience in childcare is desirable and applicants must be genuinely fond of children.
- Au pairs must come to school in the Linguaviva Centre twice per week (course Z) where they can benefit from all the school facilities as well as availing of a special rate for classes.

How does it work?

Families select au pairs from applications that are on file in the office. Applicants may be interviewed by interested families. Au pairs are carefully matched with families, who require help with childcare and housework. Please remember, however, that it will not be a holiday and that free time for both study and enjoyment will be limited. Au Pair applicants must be patient as their applications may not be seen immediately.

ENGLISH FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES (ESP)

The course aimed at students wishing to study Business consists of twenty classes per week for two weeks.

We require a minimum of five people to run this course. A good intermediate level of English is necessary to register. This course has been developed to improve performance in areas such as:

- Business skills for meetings, negotiating, telephoning and presentations.
- Linguistic skills – improving pronunciation and terminology.
- Active listening – concentrating on the necessary skills of note-taking.
- Summarising information both oral and written including report creation.
- Social situations – relating to clients/colleagues socially, hosting receptions and discussing certain topics.

Private tuition or small groups:

is perfect for students, who wish to study English more intensively. Courses can be arranged at any time of the year either on an individual basis or for small groups. These courses, geared towards the specific needs of the client, have proved highly successful in the past. A very wide and varied selection of support material is used. Classes are tailored to suit the individual needs of the student.

Examinations:

Students in The Linguaviva Centre have the opportunity to prepare for various examinations. The school has an excellent record achievement in Cambridge First Certificate, Cambridge Advanced and Cambridge Proficiency examinations.

Cambridge examinations such as PET, FCE, CAE and CPE, take place regularly throughout the year. The Linguaviva staff will provide further information to students, who would like further information on these exams.

Students wishing to take the TOEFL, TOEIC or CPE will be assisted in their preparation and materials will be made available to them.

Linguaviva is an examination centre for TIE (Test of Interactive English) and ETAPP (English Test for Academic and Professional Purposes). Both exams are recognised by ACELS, a service of Q.Q.I. (Quality and Qualifications Ireland), a statutory body of the Department of Education and Skills. The advantage of taking these exams is that they are more flexible and are less expensive than other English examinations. The Director of Studies, together with the teachers, through assessment and testing will advise students which is the most appropriate examination to take.

Self Study:

Students wishing to do self study are more than welcome to avail of classrooms, equipment and materials. We can provide a CD player and audio CDs for listening comprehension. Dictionaries and other multi-media resources can be made available to the students upon request.

*My stay was organised so well!
